YOUR LOCAL Wingman

IT ALL STARTED back in 1979 when a couple of guys from Buffalo, NY stopped in Atlanta on their way to Florida. After touring the city and enjoying the weather they decided to stay. All they had was a little cash and a great idea to bring Buffalo wings to the sunny South. It didn't take long to find the perfect spot, a quaint little taco stand on the corner of Virginia and North Highland Avenues.

With limited funds, a decision had to be made. Renovate the kitchen or change the sign out front? The kitchen won and the Taco Mac name remained.

Throughout the '80s and '90s, the wall of drafts grew to offer the largest selection of micro-brewed beers and imports in the South – decades before anyone was pouring "craft" beers. People came to enjoy their favorite brew while watching their hometown sports team at the neighborhood hangout. 38 years later, it's still the best local place for beer, Buffalo wings and sports.
